

SAVE TRAINING INVITATION

“Introduction to ArcGIS I” Certified Training

When: 11-12 February 2008 or 13-14 February 2008
08:30 – 16:00

Where: SAVE
6 Şerif Arzik Street, Ziya Necati Özkan Apt.3-4
Floor 3, Köşklüçiftlik, Nicosia

Engineers and technicians interested in learning basic Geographic Information Systems (GIS) skills are invited to participate in “Introduction to ArcGIS I” training which is specifically designed for those who are new to GIS in general. The training program provides the foundation for becoming a successful ArcGIS Desktop user. ArcGIS Desktop is Environmental Systems Research Institute, Inc. (ESRI)'s full-featured GIS software for visualizing, creating, managing, and analyzing geographic data. Participants will learn fundamental GIS concepts and become familiar with the range of functionality available in the software. During this training participants will work directly with ArcGIS Desktop and see how it provides a complete GIS software solution. All participants who complete the training will be certified in “Introduction to ArcGIS I”.
